THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTHAMPTON

2013

The relocation of the University to a new town centre campus is announced.

November 2013

David Cameron, Prime Minister, recognises the drive and excitement of development in Northampton and the University's role in this.

July 2014

Outline planning permission is granted for the modern, vibrant Waterside Campus.

September 2014

The University's first town centre accommodation, St Johns Hall, opens for 464 students to great success.

November 2014

A trailblazing financial bond issue takes place to secure the capital investment funds for the campus, with support guaranteed from Her Majesty's Treasury.

December 2014

Full design of academic and sports buildings are outlined to show state of the art teaching facilities and flexible learning spaces.

Early 2015

The Waterside on-campus student accommodation designs are developed, a mix of townhouses, en-suite rooms and studio flats for 1200 students.

July 2015

Access and infrastructure works start on site – a milestone in the project.

August 2015

Refurbishment of Bassett Lowke halls of residence (Avenue) bringing the total investment in the existing University campuses to £125m over the last 10 years.

September 2015

Further investment in Learning and Teaching IT facilities of £0.5m.

January 2016

Construction of academic, sports and residences buildings starts - scheduled completion, Spring 2018.

September 2018

The new Waterside Campus opens!