

Research Misconduct Policy

1.0 Introduction and background

1.1 The University of Northampton is committed to maintaining the best quality of research and expects all researchers to observe the highest standards of research practice and comply with all accepted procedures for research. It is the responsibility of all persons authorised to undertake research at the University or using University facilities to be aware of their responsibilities and obligations in carrying out research.

2.0 Purpose and scope

2.1 This Policy applies to any allegation of misconduct in relation to research raised by a Complainant (as defined below) against a person authorised to undertake research at the University or using University facilities.

2.2 The University looks gravely upon all misconduct and is empowered to recommend severe penalties on those who are found guilty of misconduct in relation to research.

2.3 Whether a researcher against whom an allegation of misconduct has been raised comes within this Policy or within another Policy of the University shall be decided by the Director of Student and Academic Services.

3.0 Definitions

3.1 'Researcher' refers to any person authorised to undertake research including a postgraduate student, a member of staff and persons not employed or studying at the institution but who are carrying out research under the auspices of the University or using University facilities.

4.0 Key principles

4.1 The University of Northampton adopts the Procedure for the Investigation of Misconduct in Research (UK Research Integrity Office, 2008). The Procedure is included as Appendix 9.1 and is available from <http://ukrio.org/publications/misconduct-investigation-procedure/>

4.2 The Director of Student and Academic Services is responsible for receiving any allegations of misconduct in research, initiating and supervising the Procedure for investigating allegations of misconduct in research; maintaining the record of information during the investigation and subsequently reporting on the investigation; and taking decisions at key stages of the Procedure. The Deputy Director of Student and Academic Services shall be the nominated alternate to act in the Director’s absence.

4.3 Where the researcher is a student of the University, a variation of the procedure shall be followed. Appendix 9.2 details the variations from the Procedure. Where the researcher is a member of staff registered as a postgraduate research student, the procedure shall be followed, not the student variant.

5.0 Procedural implications

5.1 Where an allegation of misconduct in relation to research could lead to criminal liability the Director of Student and Academic Services or nominee may refer the case to the police and/or other appropriate body.

5.2 In the event of a finding of misconduct, the matters listed in ‘Annex 6 Actions and outcomes’ of the Procedure for the Investigation of Misconduct in Research (UK Research Integrity Office, 2008) shall be considered by the Investigation Panel. Further consultation may be required in respect of the research to take account of such matters as effects on participants in the research, collaborative research, sponsorship and publication of the research etc.

- 5.3 Senior members of staff selected for and investigation panels shall be Deans, Executive Deans, Deputy Deans and Professors or otherwise be selected for their relevant research experience and/or expertise.
- 5.4 In the event of a finding of misconduct, it is not the role of an Investigation Panel to make a determination as to any compensation to any parties affected.
- 5.5 In the event of a finding of misconduct the Director of Human Resources (for staff) or the Director of Student and Academic Services (for students) must be consulted as to the most appropriate action prior to completion of the report. It may be determined as appropriate that the University's staff or student Disciplinary Procedure is followed and the researcher may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or expulsion from the University.
- 5.6 The Researcher must be made aware that where the employer, sponsor or other third party is informed further action may be taken.
- 5.7 It will be recommended that the Director of Student and Academic Services inform the police and/or other appropriate authority if it is believed that the misconduct has criminal liability.
- 5.8 The University's Whistleblowing Policy sets out the rights and responsibilities of those who report or attempt to report research misconduct.
- 5.9 If it is determined that a report of misconduct was frivolous, vexatious and/or malicious the Director of Student and Academic Services or their nominee may refer the matter to be dealt with in accordance with a Disciplinary Procedure in accordance with the University's Whistleblowing Policy.
- 5.10 A copy of the outcome of an investigation that has been upheld will be placed on the respondent's file and a copy of all documentation relating to the case will be stored by the Named Person. Where a case is not upheld no record will be retained.
- 5.11 Documentation relating to an allegation of research misconduct shall be stored electronically by the Director of Student and Academic Services using the University's secure document storage facility.
- 5.12 Documentation relating to an allegation of research misconduct shall only be accessible by those members of Human Resources who have been nominated to support the investigation or whose roles require them to have access to such records.

- 5.13 In the case of a researcher submitting a Subject Access Request under relevant data protection legislation, the University Data Protection Officer may also have access to documentation relating to an allegation of research misconduct.

6.0 Key responsibilities

- 6.1 The Director of Student and Academic Services, or their nominee, as the Named Person shall receive any allegations of misconduct in research, initiate and supervise the Procedure for investigating allegations of misconduct in research; maintain the record of information during the investigation and subsequently report on the investigation; and take decisions at key stages of the Procedure.
- 6.2 All persons authorised to undertake research under the auspices of the University or using University facilities are responsible for following accepted procedures for research. 'Accepted procedures' are defined In Annex 2 of the Procedure for the Investigation of Misconduct in Research (UK Research Integrity Office, 2008).
