Sponsors of the Northampton Town & County Art Society Prize for the best work in the exhibition

Current President: Sue Brownridge

Founded in 1913, the Northampton Town and County Art Society has had a continuous history of exhibiting, even during two world wars, and it has grown into the premier art society of the County with a membership of well over 100 artists.

Ocee Design

Sponsors of the Ocee Prize for Drawing

Ocee Design is an independently owned UK manufacturer of commercial furniture, based in Northampton. We invest in new products and innovations to create a stunning portfolio, while staying true to our philosophy of manufacturing ergonomically designed, quality British furniture. Ocee work with well known British and international designers as well as young, talented individuals. We research everyday activities undertaken in busy working areas to determine how our furniture can effectively facilitate new ways of working, learning and interacting. Put simply, we provide furniture solutions to create inspiring environments.

Working with educators, facility managers and students, Ocee Design has developed a collection of products to create the inspired, interactive and indestructible spaces educational institutions require. Whether it is quiet study in a library or IT suite, or socialising in a bar or eating area, the Ocee Education Collection has soft seating, easy chairs, work zones, cafe seating, flexible table systems and stacking chairs to create the ideal space.

Headed by the highly acclaimed FourSure and FourCast range, the collection features furniture that has been designed to facilitate different learning styles, maximise space utilisation and create vibrant practical areas.

Products such as Den acoustic workspaces, FourReal folding tables and the ingenious Kite® table system have made Ocee leaders in the provision of furniture for agile working. The development of our soft seating, with products such as HenRay, Stretch, Dishy and Chamfer, reveal our commitment to pursuing cutting edge designs without compromising on comfort or reliability.

We pride ourselves on our efficient and reliable service, bespoke product design and guaranteed delivery programmes. Our unique five working day delivery cycle allows us to deliver the majority of our product range in the week following order placement. As you would expect from one of the UK's foremost commercial furniture manufacturers, we enforce stringent quality standards and our products are constructed using only the finest quality materials and craftsmanship.
