Chancellor's Welcome.

It is my great pleasure to welcome graduands and guests to the University of Northampton Award Ceremonies 2026. It is an honour and privilege for me to be Chancellor of the University, and I would, therefore, like to add my personal and warmest congratulations to the graduands on this landmark achievement. The recognition that this award ceremony gives is theirs alone, in that without their efforts we could not be here. Well done every single one of you.

The Award Ceremonies are not only the culmination of the graduand's learning and recognise the achievement of their qualification, but also celebrate the support and counsel provided to them by staff of the University, fellow graduands and their family and friends. We welcome these family members and friends to the University, some of whom may have travelled considerable distances to join us here today, and hope that everyone will enjoy the ceremonies and being part, albeit for a short time, of the wider University community.

A word for our graduands - I know you will have had new experiences, opportunities and much inspiration during your studies. Whatever the future holds for you now, whether it's further study, or entering or returning to the world of work, may I wish you every success.

Reverend Richard Coles
Chancellor
The University of Northampton

Vice Chancellor's Welcome.

I join the Chancellor in welcoming you most warmly to these Awards Ceremonies.

The University of Northampton, through its antecedent institutions, has a long and distinguished history and today is a vibrant institution with over 14,000 students from over 100 countries around the world, 2,000 staff and an annual turnover of almost £180m.

In addition to extensive undergraduate, postgraduate and research degrees, the University offers professional training in a wide range of disciplines related to the employment needs of the region. We welcome part-time students and adult learners undertaking professional and career development. We are committed to working in strategic partnership with a diverse range of organisations in support of those able to benefit from higher education.

Our research output, a vital component underpinning a quality student experience, continues to grow, as does our income generated from enterprise and other commercial activities. At the same time wider engagement by staff in outward-facing activity enables them to remain at the cutting edge of their subject areas. Finally, from a position of privilege as the only university in the County, we would like to acknowledge the generous support shown to us by our alumni and friends over the past year.

These Award Ceremonies are primarily occasions of great personal significance to our students, together with their families and friends, but they are also academic and civic ceremonies, which are of considerable importance to our town and County.

I hope that you will all – our graduates, friends and families, and the many guests of the University of Northampton – enjoy these ceremonies and take pride in the achievement of our students and our University.

Professor Anne-Marie Kilday
Vice Chancellor
The University of Northampton

Reverend Richard Coles | The Chancellor.

Reverend Richard Coles was born in Northampton and educated at Wellingborough School before studying Theology at King's College London. He later earned an MA by Research from the University of Leeds.

Ordained in 2005, he served as Vicar of St Mary the Virgin in Finedon, Northamptonshire until 2022. A familiar voice on BBC Radio 4, he co-hosted Saturday Live until March 2023 and remains a regular presence on popular television programmes including Have I Got News for You, QI, and Countdown. He also co-hosts the weekly podcast The Rabbit Hole Detectives alongside Earl Spencer and Dr Cat Jarman.

Reverend Coles has made memorable appearances on several entertainment TV shows, including Strictly Come Dancing in 2017, Celebrity Masterchef in 2016, and co-presenting The Big Painting Challenge in 2017. Richard has also regularly appeared in the Pause for Thought slot on the BBC Radio 2 Breakfast Show. Richard appeared in the BBC Four series Britain's Lost Masterpieces in 2021 and guest-hosted Countdown in 2022 as part of its 40th anniversary celebrations. In 2024, he joined the cast of I'm a Celebrity... Get Me Out of Here! and finished in third place. Richard currently hosts the weekly podcast and Channel 5 show, Catching Up With the Royals. Earlier in his career, he was one half of the chart-topping 1980s pop duo The Communards, known for three top ten hits.

Passionate about housing and community development, he served for six years on the Board of Greatwell Homes, a provider of social and affordable housing in his former borough. In 2017, he transitioned from Board Member to Patron.

Reverend Coles is a prolific author whose non-fiction works span a wide range of subjects. His two Autobiographies, Fathomless Riches and Bringing in the Sheaves offer candid reflections on faith, fame and personal transformation. In The Madness of Grief he shares a deeply moving account of loss and mourning. Two collections on lesser-known saints, Lives of the Improbable Saints and Legend of the Improbable Saints. A travelogue, Coles to Jerusalem and The Rabbit Hole Book a collection of trivia and unexpected facts.

In addition to his non-fiction, Reverend Coles is the creator of the acclaimed Canon Clement Mysteries, a crime fiction series featuring the titles, Murder before Evensong, A Death in the Parish, Murder at the Monastery, Murder Under the Mistletoe and A Death on Location. The first novel in this series was recently adapted for television and premiered in the UK on Channel 5 in October 2025.

In recognition of his contributions, he was awarded honorary doctorates from the University of Northampton in 2012 and the University of Warwick in 2016.

Reverend Coles moved to East Sussex in May 2022. He said: "I'll be living in a charming 18th-century cottage with a bow window that looms over the street affording a privileged view of my neighbours' comings and goings, as the scent of lavender floats across the village green."

Dallas Campbell | Pro Chancellor.

Dallas is on a mission to take science out of the lab and into people's lives, but he completed his undergraduate degree in Drama at Nene College, an antecedent institution of the University of Northampton, in 1992.

For nearly two decades he's been at the forefront of popular science in the UK. He's presented many of the highest profile factual programmes on television, programmes which lift the curtain on our human planet, aimed at audiences of all ages and backgrounds. These include Bang Goes the Theory, The Gadget Show, The Sky at Night, Stargazing Live, Supersized Earth, Time Scanners, The Science of Stupid, Britain Beneath Your Feet, Horizon, and many more. These productions have taken him to some of the most fascinating and extreme places on Earth, from the top of the Burj Khalifa, to the bottom of a Mexican sewer, to rocket launches in Kazakhstan and everything in between.

Inform, educate and entertain is at the heart of everything Dallas does. Beyond television, he works tirelessly as a STEM ambassador and has been involved with hundreds of educational initiatives world-wide, encouraging young people to think creatively about science and technology, and to embrace the pleasures of finding things out!

His podcast Patented: History of Inventions explores the history of technology and invention. His debut book Ad Astra: An Illustrated Guide to Leaving the Planet was published in 2017 and he is currently writing his second book on the history of space flight.

Mark Lawson | Pro Chancellor.

Mark Lawson was born in Hendon and raised in Leeds. He took his undergraduate degree in English at University College London and became a freelance contributor to numerous publications including the Roman Catholic publication, The Universe and The Times. Since 1995, Mark has written for The Guardian but has also written for The Independent and has twice been TV Critic of the Year, as well as winning many other journalism awards.

Specialising in culture and the arts, Mark is best known for presenting the flagship BBC Radio 4 arts programme Front Row between 1998 and 2014. He is also a Guardian columnist, and presented 'Mark Lawson Talks To...' on BBC Four from 2006 to 2015.

Lawson presented The Late Show on BBC2 in the 1990s. In 2004, Lawson made a documentary for BBC Four called The Truth About Sixties TV, criticising what he called 'golden ageists' who, he said, have a rose-tinted view of television's past.

In addition to his work in print journalism and the broadcast media, Mark has written five books, both fiction and non-fiction. His first, Bloody Margaret is a collection of novellas on late 20th-century politics in the UK, including an eponymous satire concerning Margaret Thatcher. This was followed by The Battle for Room Service, a travelogue of people, politics and culture encountered by Mark as a journalist.

His 1995 book Idlewild is an alternative history novel in which both John F. Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe survived the 1960s. Going Out Live focused on contemporary celebrity culture and the media, and Enough is Enough is a satire set in the government of Harold Wilson during the late 1960s. In his 2016 novel The Allegations, a lecturer at a fictional English university faces disciplinary action and dismissal for bullying and harassment.

In his spare time Mark also supports Northampton Town Football Club.

Lady Phyll | Pro Chancellor.

Phyll Opoku-Gyimah is the nucleus of the award-winning celebration and protest that is UK Black Pride. Founded in 2005, UK Black Pride is Europe's largest celebration for LGBTQI+ people of African, Asian, Caribbean, Middle Eastern and Latin American descent, and is a safe space to celebrate diverse sexualities, gender identities, gender expressions and cultures. UK Black Pride organises an annual celebration during pride month, as well as a variety of activities throughout the year, which promote and advocate for the spiritual, emotional and intellectual health and wellbeing of the communities it represents.

Widely known as Lady Phyll - partly due to her decision to reject an MBE in the New Year's Honours' list to protest Britain's role in formulating anti-LGBTQI+ penal codes across its empire - she was also the executive director of Kaleidoscope Trust, an organisation working to uphold the human rights of LGBTQI+ people around the world. She is a community builder and organiser; an Albert Kennedy Trust patron, and a public speaker focusing on race, gender, sexuality and class.

Lady Phyll's over two decades of dedication to human rights advocacy have left an indelible mark. She's regularly called upon to advise nascent LGBTQI+ organisations around the world to help leaders create cogent organising strategies, establish robust partnership networks and work effectively in service of the LGBTQI+ community and inspire all who strive for equality and justice.

Lady Phyll is also the Secretary for TCEN - The Commonwealth Equality Network; a network of organisations challenging inequality based on sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, and sex characteristics. The Network was set up to give a global voice to LGBTQI+ communities across the Commonwealth and to support joint advocacy to provide an answer to the colonial legacy of homophobia - a Commonwealth solution to a Commonwealth problem.

Morcea Walker | Pro Chancellor.

Born on the island of Jamaica, Morcea has always been proud of her heritage. Aged nine she moved to Great Britain. Her time in Jamaica and the years spent on her own, certainly impacted on her life. It helped give her feelings of belonging and helping.

Morcea has taught in various types of Secondary schools. Teaching is a passion that has driven Morcea throughout her adult life. Morcea believes that working with young people should be treated as a privilege, a joy to be part of opening minds and learning from them.

As an Advisory Teacher (Equalities) Morcea used the Arts as a platform for learning. This has meant that she has promoted the whole issue of gender, race, disability etc through this medium. Morcea became the Co-ordinator for Supplementary Schools in Northamptonshire, and this remains her favourite activity – apart from being a wife, mum, and grandmother! These schools run language and cultural classes including Arabic, Chinese, Polish, African Caribbean, Russian and Guajarati.

Her three children are all in jobs that serve the community and are quietly doing their own volunteering as appropriate. Morcea has a true love of the county of Northamptonshire – it's exciting history, parks, countryside, events, towns and much more. Morcea is a Governor at a local school and a Trustee at a number of organisations including Northamptonshire Music and Performing Arts Trust, Northamptonshire Black History Association, Healthwatch – West and North Northamptonshire, Street Pastors and Community Law.

Morcea was awarded an MBE in 2012, appointed as a Deputy Lieutenant in 2017 and was Vice-Lord-Lieutenant of Northamptonshire from 2022-2024.

Anne-Marie Kilday | The Vice Chancellor.

Professor Anne-Marie Kilday is Vice Chancellor and Professor of Criminal History at the University of Northampton.

She writes and researches on various aspects of criminal history, particularly focusing on violent behaviour and gendered criminality.

Professor Kilday started her academic career in Scotland working at the University of Strathclyde and then the University of Glasgow. She joined Oxford Brookes University in 2000 as a Lecturer in Early Modern History and progressed her career at the University securing various promotions from Principal Lecturer through to Dean. She was promoted into the senior leadership team becoming the Pro Vice-Chancellor for Research and Knowledge Transfer and Impact in 2012 and then became Pro Vice-Chancellor Student Experience & University Community, with institutional responsibility for all aspects of both student and staff experience in 2018 and continued in that role until she left for the University.

Anne-Marie enjoys supporting Oxford United and Celtic football clubs, playing table tennis, reading true crime and crime fiction, and chasing after her five cats Duncan, Angus, Vasquez, Rori and Boo, and her three dogs Aeryn, Brodie and Vada!

Autumn Ceremonies | November 2026

Becky Bradshaw | Interim Vice Chancellor.

Becky has worked in the higher education sector for over 20 years taking her current position as Interim Vice Chancellor at the University of Northampton in 2026. Becky has institutional responsibility for strategic operations, supporting the Vice Chancellor with development and delivering of the University's strategy, and providing strategic leadership and oversight to the majority of professional services.

Becky has a background in health, safety and risk management, and led the operationalisation of the University of Northampton's new and innovative Waterside Campus, alongside their strategic response to the Coronavirus pandemic. She is passionate about social impact, the influence of universities on their local and regional communities and economies, and the positive impact of professional services on the student experience, in addition to sustainability and environmental improvement, and has led development of both the University's Sustainability and Estates strategies.

She sits on several strategic boards locally, including the SEMLEP Waterside Enterprise Zone Board, and Northampton Forward, and often contributes to sector wide working and advisory groups.

Andy Burman | Chair, Board of Governors.

Andy is a graduate of Sheffield Hallam University, where he was also a Students' Union Vice President. Since then, he has a work history spanning central and local government, the NHS, the not-for-profit sector and working closely with the Higher Education sector. He was previously CEO of the British Dietetic Association for nearly 20 years and has over 10 years' experience as a governance expert: advising the not-for-profit sector both in the UK and internationally.

He holds several trustee and Non-Executive Director and advisory positions on Boards of charities and companies in the UK. He has worked in the health sector for over 25 years, is a visiting lecturer on governance and ethics and speaks both nationally and internationally on Board development and governance for professional and membership bodies. In addition, he has been involved with key strategic government projects and reviews in recent years. He was involved with the implementation of the Nightingale Hospitals at the start of the COVID-19 pandemic and was a member of the Board leading the review of NHS Hospital Food.

Andy has a long history with Northampton, having lived in the area previously but is still a regular supporter at Northampton Saints RFC.

The University welcomed the first cohort of students at the new, purpose-built Waterside Campus.

2026 Current News.

MAY 2026

With record numbers of university students opting to stay at home, young people at Northampton College will now have a better chance of getting a degree thanks to a new progression agreement with the University of Northampton.

The agreement will see courses aligned between the two institutions, giving college students more options when choosing a degree and increasing their chances of securing a place at their local university.

Professor Anne-Marie Kilday said the agreement is designed to widen participation in higher education and support more learners to continue their studies locally by making their options clear and by reducing barriers linked to cost of moving away to study.

MAY 2026

The University's commitment to support students' health to get the most out of their studies received official confirmation this week.

University of Northampton's harm reduction campus approach has been endorsed by SOS-UK (Students Organising for Sustainability) at their recent Student Drug and Alcohol Conference.

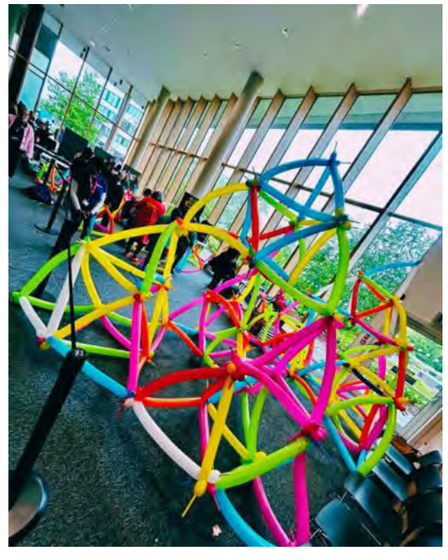

Accepting the accreditation were Associate Professor in Psychology, Dr Kimberley Hill, and University of Northampton Students' Union's Deputy CEO, Rosie Harvey, who also gave talks about their respective work to develop and promote an alcohol and drug-safe campus.

JUNE 2026

Screams of excitement, wide eyes and life changing experiences was the order of the day during University of Northampton's annual careers event attended by 10–18-year-olds from across Northamptonshire last week.

STEAM Northants is organised by the University's Schools Engagement team and is a day of free activities, workshops, drop-in areas, and exciting, interactive shows that inspire young people to imagine themselves pursuing a career in Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Maths (STEAM).

Highlights included three planetariums, an indoor remote-controlled hot-air balloon and more than 80 exhibitors including Government services, engineering firms, health agencies and public services.

JUNE 2026

The University of Northampton has been recognised by the Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI) for its commitment to water safety and the support its work has provided to emergency services across Northamptonshire.

The University's Campus Safety Team received a certificate of best practice from the RNLI in recognition of the water safety work carried out over the past year, including the successful application of lifesaving skills learned through the Waterside Responder Course.

Delivered by Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service, the Waterside Responder Course equips organisations located near water with the knowledge and confidence to respond safely to incidents before emergency services arrive.

2025-2026 Current News.

JUNE 2026

More than 250 young creatives from across Northamptonshire have showcased their talent, imagination and design skills as part of the University of Northampton x Swaysland Award for Design Excellence.

This year's competition invited students to create innovative footwear designs inspired by nature and the world around them. The competition attracted submissions from 13 schools across Northamptonshire, with students from Reception through to Year 13 taking part.

Winners were presented with certificates at the opening night of the University's 2026 Degree Show on Thursday 18 June 2026.

By working closely with schools and colleges across the county, the University is proud to support the next generation of designers and innovators.

JULY 2026

Law academics and students welcomed Northants Assistant Coroner Hassan Shah last month to a Mock Inquest at Waterside Campus.

Hassan is currently a partner at EMW Law, is co-head of the Northampton office and was appointed Assistant Coroner for Northamptonshire in 2014.

Hassan told students how he was the first member of his family to attend university, coming from a non-English speaking family and how he progressed to become a partner at EMW Law and co-head of the Northampton Office, and his journey to the Coroner's Office.

In this session students engaged with a real scenario from an Inquest and played characters such as the coroner, doctors, hospital representatives, and the deceased's family members.

AUGUST 2026

The University of Northampton (UON) is celebrating the success of its growing partnership with Raffles College of Higher Education in Singapore, as the first cohort of students studying University of Northampton degrees attended their graduation ceremonies.

Interim Vice Chancellor Becky Bradshaw said: "Watching University of Northampton graduates walk across the stage in Singapore is both a privilege and reminder of our global reach and influence.

"The impact these students are already having through projects with high-profile brands is a demonstration of what can be achieved when two institutions share a commitment to innovation, creativity and industry-focused education."

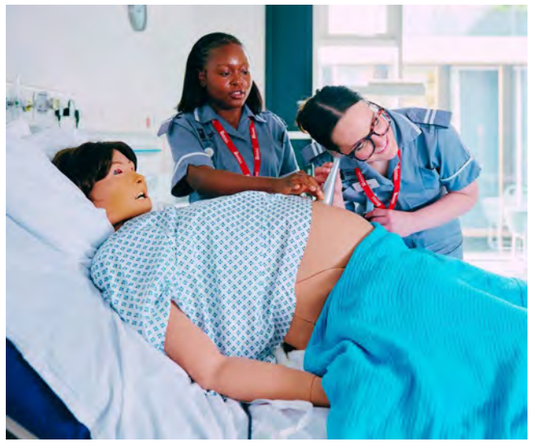

OCTOBER 2026

Listening, learning, and doing are at the top of the agenda for two University of Northampton (UON) students who have joined a new national network.

The Student Advisory Network, established this year, is a diverse, UK-wide network of healthcare students created by the Council of Deans of Health.

Members serve up to two years and work collaboratively with the Council, their peers and other senior leaders to bring real student perspectives into national conversations about health and social care education, leadership and policy.

Two of the first network of 40 members are final-year Midwifery student Faleasha Pink and Kerry Gilbert, who is in the second year of her Midwifery course.

UON People Awards.

These awards saw the University of Northampton celebrate the best of research, social impact and teaching and learning.

Vice Chancellor Award

A special recognition award from Anne-Marie

Dominic Langdon

During an Open Day last year – an event which showcases the best of our University and welcome future students and their families and loved ones – an unforeseen and life-threatening medical emergency occurred. In that moment, when hesitation could have been understandable, one of our colleagues stepped forward without question.

Through swift thinking, calm under pressure, and the immediate administering of CPR, Dominic Langdon quite simply saved a life.

Those words are not used lightly.

In emergency situations, seconds matter. Confidence matters. Training matters. But so too does compassion – the willingness to act for another person when they need you most. Dominic embodied all these qualities. Their actions were decisive, selfless and deeply human.

What makes this act even more remarkable is that it did not happen in a hospital or controlled environment but here – in our workplace, amidst the energy and activity of an Open Day. The outcome could have been very different, but because of Dominic's intervention, it was not.

We are incredibly grateful – to Dominic and to everyone who supported the situation on the day. But in particular, we wish to acknowledge that one individual's actions made a profound and lasting difference.

Dominic, on behalf of the University, our colleagues, our students and the individual whose life was saved, thank you. Your actions reflect the very best of who we are as a community – principles of care, responsibility, and courage in action.

Remembering Ayshea O'Brien

Autumn Ceremonies | November 2026

Vice Chancellor Award

A Special Recognition award from Anne-Marie

Ayshea O'Brien

With this award we honour not just achievement, but character.

Ayshea consistently went above and beyond - demonstrating dedication, resilience and a genuine commitment to others. This is demonstrated in her shortlisting for the Outstanding Achievement in Learning and Teaching Award.

Ayshea's presence is very much felt through the people they have inspired, the lives they have touched and the difference they have made. Their work at the university was highly valued and deserving of this recognition and the appreciation of the university as a whole.

This award honours Ayshea's contribution during their time at the University.

A moving tribute from her students:

Ayshea was such a wonderful lecturer and an even lovelier person. Her passion for teaching was evident in everything she did. She had a way of bringing her subjects to life, making her lectures so engaging and memorable that you couldn't help but look forward to being in her class.

This time last year, many of us were sitting in her Equity lectures, drawing those familiar diagrams connecting trusts, trustees and beneficiaries, as she patiently reinforced each lesson to make sure we understood and never forgot. Those are the little classroom memories we will always cherish.

Beyond being an excellent lecturer, Ayshea was warm, kind and incredibly supportive. She had a way of making even the most reluctant student look forward to attending her lectures. As we celebrate this milestone today, it is bittersweet knowing that she is not here to share it with us.

We are grateful to have been taught by her, and her lessons, kindness and impact will remain with us long after today.

She will be deeply missed and fondly remembered.

The Honorands.

Captain Pradeep Singh

Conferment of an Honorary Master of Science

Pradeep Singh will be presented by Gavin Barber at a ceremony on Friday 13 November.

Captain Pradeep Singh is an international entrepreneur, author and business leader whose journey spans command at sea, enterprise across continents and a commitment to creating opportunity for others. He is the Founder and Chairman of Aethon Group and Karma Developers, with business interests across maritime, real estate, technology and investment.

A Master Mariner who became a ship captain at 27, he built his leadership foundations in an environment where judgement, integrity and responsibility carry immediate human consequences. Those principles continue to shape his approach to business, mentorship and service. His achievements have earned more than 20 international awards and recognitions, including honours from Forbes India, Forbes Middle East, Entrepreneur, Thinkers360 and Gulf Business, alongside inclusion in leading lists of influential business figures.

A committed lifelong learner, he is an alumnus of the University of Northampton, Alliance Manchester Business School, Harvard Business School and Northumbria University. Captain Singh is the author of No Map, Just Vision and The Asset Play. His life is also the subject of Dr. Binay Singh's biography, Storms to Skylines: The Voyage of Capt. Pradeep Singh. An international keynote speaker and panellist, he shares insights on leadership, entrepreneurship and financial understanding with audiences worldwide and a LinkedIn community exceeding 100,000 followers.

Beyond his commercial achievements, he mentors entrepreneurs and business leaders, champions seafarer welfare and supports educational access, philanthropy and cultural restoration. His guiding conviction – that success should create possibilities for others – connects his work across industries, communities and generations.

Autumn Ceremonies | November 2026

Professor Mona Rashid Al-Zayani

Conferment of an Honorary Doctorate of Education

Professor Mona Rashid Al-Zayani will be presented by Karen Jones at a ceremony on Friday 13 November.

Professor Mona Rashid Al-Zayani is a highly distinguished educator, visionary leader, and pioneer in higher education in Bahrain. She is the founder of Gulf University (established 2001) and currently serves as Chairperson of both the Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors.

Over decades, she has built and led institutions with a strong commitment to educational excellence, social development, women's empowerment, and community service - including founding not only Gulf University but also an earlier institution, Al-Hekma International School and contributing to national educational initiatives.

Under her leadership, Gulf University has become a respected private higher-education institution offering a range of undergraduate programmes - from engineering, computer sciences, law, to administration and financial sciences - providing thousands of Bahraini, regional and international students with higher education opportunities.

STAAR Awards.

Each year, the Students' Union recognises the hard work and achievements of the UON community through our Student Teaching, Activities and Academic Representation (STAAR) Awards.

Celebrating educators who demonstrate innovative teaching methods, foster inclusive learning environments, and make a lasting impact on student success, whether they excel in traditional classrooms, online platforms, or experiential learning settings.

And student volunteers, the unsung heroes among us who devote their time, energy, and skills to serve others. Whether they are organising fundraisers, planning exciting events or ensuring their course mates are supported, we want to recognise their outstanding contributions.

Congratulations to all our winners and all who were nominated - your work does not go unnoticed!

Graduating Research Students.

A doctorate is the highest award that a university can make for a course of study. It recognises that the researcher has made a significant contribution to human knowledge in their given field. To achieve a doctorate, a candidate will have spent years conducting original research and writing a substantial thesis, which will have been examined by experts in their discipline.

At these ceremonies, we celebrate the achievements of these Postgraduate Research Students. We also recognise those who have supported them along the way, including their supervisors, research collaborators, staff from across the university, and also family and friends. The fascinating projects listed below give a flavour of the excellent cutting-edge research being conducted right across the University of Northampton.

A warm welcome to the UON Alumni community.

Congratulations! You are now a member of the UON Alumni and are joining an ever-growing number of UON graduates by entering a new stage of your journey. Now that you have gained your qualification, the Alumni team is here to provide you with everything you need to help navigate your life after graduation.

Your career support.

As a graduate of UON you are eligible for lifelong support from our careers and employability services. Be it support with creating/updating a CV, access to recruitment fairs and networking opportunities, or expert one on one advice, the team are there to help.

Unitemps is also available for graduates looking for part time work or graduate opportunities so remember to check their website, www.unitemps.com, to see what they have to offer.

Don't stop now.

You're now eligible for 20% discount on postgraduate study at the University of Northampton. If you're not quite ready to leave us yet, come and study a Master's! There's more information available online at northampton.ac.uk/postgraduate/

Keep in touch.

We are on hand to help you stay in contact with your classmates or lecturers so if there is someone that you have fallen out of touch with, please let us know and we will try to reconnect you where possible. Also, instead of just running formal Alumni events a few times a year, we'd rather work around you. If you're thinking about organising a reunion or creating a small Alumni group in your area, please let us know – we'd love to help you through the process!

We love to promote our graduates and hear more about what you have been up to after graduation so please remember to let us know about any achievements you gain that you are proud of.

Autumn Ceremonies | November 2026

Help shape the future of UON.

The Graduate Outcomes Survey is the largest annual social survey in the UK. Its goal is to find out what graduates are up to after they leave university, and how their university and their course may have helped. Use your graduate voice to shape the future of the university and help future students by completing the survey which will be sent to you 15 months after graduation.

Keep an eye out.

We will be sending you monthly emails in the form of an Alumni newsletter to keep you up to date with news, events, CPD possibilities, careers support and what other Alumni are getting up to. You will also be able to access our Targetconnect portal as a graduate which provides you with access to ongoing careers support and resources.

If you need us.

You have graduated, but that doesn't mean that we have stopped supporting you. If you find you need assistance, be it information about further education, careers support or just a reminder of your student number, get in touch and your UON Alumni Team will be more the happy to help you.

ACADEMIC DRESS BASICS

1. Academic caps will vary based on degree level, with mortarboards (square caps) being worn for graduates up to the doctoral level. Doctoral graduates will typically wear a cloth or velvet bonnet with a coloured tassel.

2. Hood colours represent both the institution and its faculties. For example, the blue in the image to the right represents the University of Northampton, with the red representing the Faculty of Arts.

3. Hood shapes will differ based on the level of the degree. Undergraduates will typically have a simple-shaped hood, while postgraduates will typically have a more complex or full-shaped hood.

4. Gown shapes and colours will indicate different degree levels. For example, bachelors degrees will typically have simpler pointed sleeves, while masters degrees will have longer, more elaborate sleeves.

Coat of Arms.

The themes associated with the Coat of arms are essentially concerned with the physical location of the University within the Borough of Northampton and the County of Northamptonshire, together with the central activities of the University.

The Borough is depicted in the left-hand supporter, a lion rampant, and in the central triple-turreted castle. It is also evident in the similar castle footstools for both supporters. The Main County reference is in the right-hand supporter of a bull with a golden chain and is depicted in the Tudor rose held by the roebuck. The County colours of blue, green and silver are also a feature of the Coat of Arms.

The linking of Borough and County through the imagery of the River Nene is strongly pursued with two horizontal representations of the river, one on the central shield and one below the supporters.

The University's activities are reflected in the central feature of books of learning, and the vocational technology perspective is illustrated by linked cogwheels. The University's concern with learning is nicely encapsulated in the motto `Ne Nesciamus' - Let us not be ignorant'. The first four letters spelling Nene, for Nene College, an antecedent institution title of the University of Northampton.

Finally, The University's long association with the Worshipful Company of Leathersellers is depicted by the inclusion of the roebuck from its own coat of arms.
